

RHODE ISLAND

CONSUMER FIREWORKS

Specifically permitted

None

Specifically prohibited

Roman candles, skyrockets, helicopters, cylindrical and cone fountains, wheels, torches, dipped sticks and sparklers, mines and shells, firecrackers, and torpedoes.

DISPLAY FIREWORKS

Display permit

Apply to local authorities at least 15 days before display date.

Insurance

Required - $50,000

Operator

Must be at least 18 and hold a valid Certificate of Competency issued by State Fire Marshal. State license required, $50 fee. Apply to State Fire Marshal. Test required $10 fee, license valid for 1 year, renewable on March 1 $50 fee. At least 2 operators required during display. Also Fire Dept personnel must be present, expenses to be paid by permittee.

MANUFACTURE, STORAGE, TRANSPORTATION

Manufacturers and dealers must obtain license from State Fire Marshal.

ENFORCING AUTHORITY

State Fire Marshal
State of Rhode Island Division of Fire Safety
24 Conway Avenue
N. Kingstown, RI 02852
401-294-0861

LAW NUMBER

General Laws, Sec 11-3-1 et seq. and Rhode Island Fire Safety Code Fireworks Law
Div of Fire Safety Rules & Regs FSR-3 6/76