

CONSUMER FIREWORKS

Permitted

Specifically prohibited

Selling Period

Those fireworks sold at retail for consumer use and those not designated as Class C Dangerous Explosives. Newly allowed in 2011 are aerial devices known as multiple tube, repeater, or cakes lit by a single fuse.

Firecrackers, bottle rockets, missiles, roman candles, skyrocketes, rockets mounted on a wire or stick, ground salutes, M-80's, cherry bombs, aerial salutes, flash shells, comets, mines, single shot or reloadable aerial shells, aerals that contain over 500 grams of pyrotechnic material & other illegal explosives are prohibited.

June 1-July 31, December 1-January 5, and 30 days before and up to 5 days after the Chinese New Year

UTAH DISPLAY FIREWORKS

Display permit

Insurance

Operator

Required by local authorities, fee may be required.

May be required. Amount set by local authorities.

Must apply to State Fire Marshal for certification, pay $40 annual fee, and demonstrate proof of competence.

MANUFACTURE, STORAGE, TRANSPORTATION

Storage and handling requirements in law.

ENFORCING AUTHORITY

State Fire Marshal
Utah Dept of Public Safety
5272 College Drive, Suite 302
Murray, UT 84123
801-284-6350
www.publicsafety.utah.gov/firemarshal/index.html

LAW NUMBER

Utah Code Annotated, Sections 57-7-202, 220-225 as amended on January 21, 2011.

Updated: 5/2013